Overview

After our most successful World Cup campaign to date, Great Britain Tag Rugby is seeking multiple committed, organised and dependable Team Managers for the next Tag World Cup cycle. Successful applicants will find themselves at the leading edge of tag rugby in the UK, taking a frontline role with the programme as part of an inclusive, innovative and highly motivated environment. The challenge for Great Britain Tag Rugby is to scale even greater heights on the journey to the next World Cup and the new Team Managers will be a fundamental part of realising this ambition.

Responsibilities

- Work with a Head and Assistant Coach to organise fortnightly training sessions
- Record team attendances and injury reports across the season
- Provide feedback opportunities for players and liaise with coaches to implement improvements
- Work with the Great Britain Programme Director to communicate key information to players
- Assist players with planning travel and accommodation around international and domestic tournaments
- Attend Great Britain planning meetings and provide constructive feedback on behalf of the players
- Attend Great Britain internationals and tournaments to manage substitutions, injury reports and disciplinary issues
- Be an approachable and supportive member of the team in order to answer players' questions and help with any concerns they may have
- Work collaboratively with managers across the other Great Britain sides to ensure best practice is shared throughout the programme
- Assist in arranging inter-Great Britain training matches
- Work with the Great Britain Programme Director to develop and maintain an overall vision that inspires and empowers the players within the programme
- Assist with sponsorship bids for the Programme
- Liaise with the Great Britain Programme Director about the progress of the team
